Private hospitals keen to assist in Covid-19 vaccine registration

Published 6 Apr 2021, 10:06 am • Modified 10:18 am

The Association of Private Hospital Malaysia (APHM) president Dr Kuljit Singh said that private hospitals are keen to work together with the Health Ministry to register public and private patients in private hospitals for the National Covid-19 Vaccine Immunisation Programme.

This came after Science, Technology and Innovation Minister Khairy Jamaluddin said yesterday that the government will most likely reconsider the registration policy if the sign-up rate for Covid-19 vaccination is not satisfactory by July...
