

AstraZeneca says working with Southeast Asian nations on vaccine deliveries

Reuters

Published 10 Jun 2021, 4:19 pm

AstraZeneca said it is working closely with Southeast Asia governments to ensure its Covid-19 vaccine is supplied "as quickly as possible", after reported delays in deliveries of orders from a Thai plant owned by the country's powerful king.

Malaysia and Taiwan this week became the latest in the region to warn they expected delays in deliveries of AstraZeneca vaccines manufactured in Thailand.

"Distribution to other Southeast Asian...

world astrazeneca southeast asia

Sign up for Kini Morning Brief

Related Reports (5)

Scottish study underscores rarity of blood disorders after Astra vaccine

10 Jun 2021

Delta variant believed to have 60pct transmission advantage: UK epidemiologist

10 Jun 2021

Sinovac's Covid-19 vaccine: Old but still gold?

10 Jun 2021

Thai-made AstraZeneca vaccines on the way

4 Jun 2021

No in-person Parliament until herd immunity achieved, home minister says

4 Jun 2021