

AZ vaccine shipments delayed

NATION

Thursday, 10 Jun 2021

PETALING JAYA: The government is expecting some delay to AstraZeneca vaccine shipments, says Khairy Jamaluddin.

“I have been on calls for the last two to three days with AstraZeneca as well as other governments to make sure we can shore up supply for this month,” said the coordinating minister for the National Covid-19 Immunisation Programme during a joint press conference with Health Minister Datuk Seri Dr Adham Baba yesterday, when asked about production issues at the Thailand manufacturing site.
