KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia calls for the World Bank to be a strong voice for developing countries for global vaccine equity.

Science, Technology and Innovation Minister Khairy Jamaluddin said the hoarding of vaccines by industrialised countries was immoral and "had fallen short of respectable and responsible global leadership".

"We set up COVAX in a global solidarity as a mechanism of vaccine equity and that has been an abysmal failure and I think the World Bank owes it to the developing countries to be a strong voice on vaccine equity in the global stage," he said in a special address at the launch of the Malaysia Economic Monitor - June 2021 Edition held virtually today.

Khairy also highlighted the need for renewed solidarity and urgency to narrow vaccine equity gaps that were leaving low- and middle-income countries behind.

Khairy said the government was rapidly increasing the number of vaccination centres (PPV) to speed up the rollout of the immunisation programme as well as setting up a number of mega PPV to ramp up the vaccination rate.

He said there was also a target of an additional 1,000 general practitioners from the private sector to start to administer vaccines by June 30, as the government continuously increase the number of PPV.

"The government is confident of administering 11 million doses in July, 13 million doses by the end of August 2021 and a further eight million doses by the end of September.

"Our goal is to be as inclusive as possible in our deployment of the vaccine," he said. -- Bernama
