Kuala Lumpur reported the highest number of individuals who had received their first dose at 573,392, followed by Selangor (487,138), Sarawak (355,676), Johor (309,350) and Sabah (254,339).

Meanwhile, Selangor recorded 180,605 individuals who had completed their second dose of vaccination, followed by Sarawak (159,920), Perak (135,435), Johor (135,621) and Kuala Lumpur (127,174).

National Covid-19 Immunisation Programme Coordinating Minister Khairy Jamaluddin yesterday said the fourth phase of the National Covid-19 Immunisation Programme beginning tomorrow (June 16) will target industry workers.

He added that the fourth phase is meant to reduce the number of infections in workplaces as workplace outbreaks continue to dominate the number of new clusters every day.

Separately, Malaysia reported 4,949 new daily Covid-19 cases yesterday, bringing the country's cumulative confirmed infections to 662,457.

Health director-general Tan Sri Dr Noor Hisham Abdullah also announced 60 more fatalities linked to the Covid-19.

A total of 921 Covid-19 patients were being treated in intensive care units (ICUs), of whom 459 were on ventilators.

The worlds of art and Scotch whisky share a lot of common values. Both boast a high-level of artistry and craftsmanship. Just like an artist who brings his creation to life on a canvas, a master blender uses his years of skill and creativity to create unique whisky expressions.
