

NEWS

Pregnant women confident Covid-19 vaccine can protect themselves, their babies

Bernama

Published 21 Jun 2021, 8:54 pm

Expectant mother Noor Syakila Mothar was extremely worried when she came across stories of complications faced by women who contracted Covid-19 during pregnancy, including giving birth to premature babies.

Therefore, the 35-year-old housewife, who is expected to deliver her baby in September, decided to sign up as a vaccine recipient via the MySejahtera application in order to protect herself and her unborn child from the virus.

"It was sad to...

health covid-19 vaccine pregnant women

Sign up for Kini Morning Brief

Related Reports (5)

M'sia developing mRNA Covid-19 vaccine - Adham

21 Jun 2021

KJ lashes out at global vaccine inequity after Hungary comparison

21 Jun 2021

Sabah hopes to achieve herd immunity by year-end

21 Jun 2021

Adham: Only one vaccinated healthcare worker contracted serious Covid-19

21 Jun 2021

KJ: First delivery of CanSino vaccine coming in July, no news yet on J&J

21 Jun 2021