

NEWS

166
Shares

EU ambassador denies KJ's 'vaccine-hoarding' claim, says M'sia received millions

Published 23 Jun 2021, 9:10 am • Modified 11:43 am

Editor's Note: The article has been amended to add background on vaccine hoarding and purchases by the EU and Malaysia.

The European Union (EU) has denied allegations by coordinating minister of the National Covid-19 Immunisation Programme (NIP), Khairy Jamaluddin, that the bloc was hoarding Covid-19 vaccines.

EU ambassador to Malaysia Michalis Rokas said the claims were baseless because the EU's actions proved that it was very concerned about the issue.

"All requests from the Malaysian government...

health covid-19 vaccine european union

Sign up for Kini Morning Brief

Related Reports (5)

AstraZeneca vaccine effective against Covid-19 variants identified in India

23 Jun 2021

KJ: Vaccination in N Sembilan set to reach 80pct in October

22 Jun 2021

Selangor still lowest in terms of percentage vaccinated

22 Jun 2021

KJ lashes out at global vaccine inequity after Hungary comparison

21 Jun 2021

Adham: Only one vaccinated healthcare worker contracted serious Covid-19

21 Jun 2021