Klang MP Charles Santiago has called on Prime Minister Ismail Sabri Yaakob to “step in” in the decision-making process over the country’s vaccination drives.

This is in view of the fact that the population had yet to reach 90 percent herd immunity.

Santiago claimed that this was contrary to the reason given by the Covid-19 Immunisation Task Force (CITF) that 29 vaccination centres (PPVs) across Selangor had to be shut down because a large proportion of the population...
