MDV names Marazizi Omar as chief business officer

Malaysia Debt Ventures Bhd (MDV) has appointed Marazizi Omar as its new chief business officer effective from November 21.

KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia Debt Ventures Bhd (MDV) has appointed Marazizi Omar as its new chief business officer effective from November 21.

MDV chairman Khairul Azwan Harun said given Marazizi's in-depth experience and extensive exposure in various business sectors the board and the management was confident that Marazizi would be an asset to the company.

"He will help MDV in its efforts to achieve rapid growth targets over the next three to five years, pursuant to MDV's long-term plans, and in advancing the technology sector for the benefit of the nation," said Khairul.

Marazizi brings with him more than 20 years of substantial experience in business and finance, having held multiple senior leadership positions in various corporations as well as having successfully founded his own technology-based businesses.

Prior to the appointment by MDV, Marazizi served as chief operating officer and later, as chief business officer, at Export Import Bank Malaysia for three years.

He was also chief executive officer of Pembangunan Leasing Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank Pembangunan Malaysia Bhd and had worked with CIMB, Southern Bank and Bank Bumiputra Malaysia Bhd in various capacities.

Marazizi holds a master's degree in business administration from University of South Australia, Australia and a bachelor's degree in business management from Midwestern State University, Texas. He is a member of the Institute of Corporate Directors Malaysia (ICDM).

MDV is a subsidiary of the Minister of Finance (Incorporated) and an agency under the purview of the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation.
