MDV makes Marazizi chief business officer

KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia Debt Venture Bhd (MDV) has appointed Marazizi Omar as its new chief business officer, effective Nov 21, 2022.

MDV said in a statement that Marazizi has about two decades of experience in business and finance, having held multiple senior leadership positions in various corporations as well as having successfully founded his own technology-based businesses.

MDV is a unit of the Finance Ministry and an agency under the purview of the Science, Technology and Innovation Ministry.

It said Marazizi had served as the chief operating officer and later, as chief business officer, at Export Import Bank Malaysia for three years.
