ACCCIM held Industry 4.0 Seminar on December 6

November 23, 2022

Dai Lianglin (second from right) and members of the organizing committee encourage businesses to sign up for the 2022 Industry 4.0 Symposium.

(Kuala Lumpur, 22nd) The Malaysian Chinese Entrepreneur Association (ACCCIM) held another seminar on Industry 4.0. This year's theme is "Displaying the Nine Pillars of Industry 4.0". Entrepreneurs are welcome to sign up.

This seminar will be held on 6th December (Tuesday) from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm at Jay Wanda Hotel in Petaling, Selangor.

Kuala Lumpur and Selangor Chinese Chamber of Commerce, Perak Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Klang Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry are co-organizers of this event, and Malaysian Investment Development Authority and Malaysian Productivity Corporation are supporting units.

Many well-known technology companies and institutions such as Microsoft, Malaysia Technology and Innovation Accelerator Research Center, Fortinet, Axiomtek, Dingjie Software, Fusionex, Swisslog, TeamViewer and Selangor Human Resources Development Center will share the latest Industry 4.0 technology on the day Develop and explain how to use technology to leverage advantages to make companies more resilient in the post-epidemic recovery era. The medium of the seminar is English.

Showcasing the latest technological developments

Dai Lianglin, Deputy Director of ACCCIM's International Trade and Industry Group and Chairman of the Preparatory Committee, pointed out that this is the second time ACCCIM has hosted the Industry 4.0 Seminar after 2019. This seminar aims to demonstrate the latest Industrial 4.0 technology development to Malaysian businesses , to encourage business transformation.

He said that the organizing committee invited Dato Hanafi, Senior Director of Industrial Development of the Ministry of International Trade and Industry, to explain the progress of Industry 4.0 policies, while representatives of the Malaysian Industrial Development Financial Institution shared information on low-interest loans. Participants will also have the chance to win rich gifts in the lucky draw.

The registration fee for ACCCIM basic members and group members is RM200 per person; non-members are RM300 per person. Registration link: https://bit.ly/ACCCIM2022IR4Conference, the deadline is December 2, 2022.