`Anwar can steer Malaysia towards economic recovery`

KUCHING: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim could steer Malaysia towards a better road of economic recovery, said political scientist Prof Datuk Dr Jayum Jawan.

The academician from Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) and fellow Academy of Sciences Malaysia said he placed high hopes in the leadership of the 10th Prime Minister who had pledged 'to do things differently'.

"I place high hopes in the leadership of Anwar Ibrahim as the 10th Prime Minister of Malaysia. He promises to do things differently, acknowledging that Malaysia is a plural society and thus, wishes to ensure that all people have roles in his 'Unity Government' in moving forward," he said in his New Year message to The Borneo Post yesterday.

Jayum said he was willing to give Anwar a chance and would be looking forward to a better, united and progressive Malaysia under Anwar's leadership.

"In economy, there is no one I can better trust, and Anwar Ibrahim is probably the best there is in Malaysia to bring the country out of this sluggish growth, domestically and internationally," said the academician.
